South Sound Sailing Society

The South Sound Sailing Society is a group of area folks who share a love for sailing. We were founded 30 years ago and have grown to a group of about 300 families and single people who enjoy the camaraderie of meeting, racing, and cruising together. The club is a member of PIYA, PHRF of the NW, and the USSA.

- Monthly meetings with top-notch speakers, such as yacht designer Bob Perry and gold-medalist Bill Buchan, as well as authors and world cruisers. We also have educational and entertaining films with topics ranging from America's Cup highlights to cruising Vancouver Island and beyond.
